DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

THE ELECTION IN RICHMOND.

As everything connected with the exercise, for the first time, of the right of suffrage by the negroes, is of interest, we give the following account, from the Richmond Whig, of how things were managed in that city, on Tuesday,—even with the bayonets to preserve quiet and order:

"The voting (so-called) in Jefferson Ward was conducted in the Mayor's Court. Over one of the front entrances was a board marked "white voters," and over the other a board marked "colored voters," and in front, on the side-walk, were two tables side by side, on one of which were strewn Hunnicutt's yellow tickets, and on the other the Conservative tickets. At an early hour a detachment of the Eleventh Infantry was on the spot, and was posted at the corner of Eighteenth and Main. Long before the doors to the polling room were opened a crowd of negroes began to gather around the entrance appropriated to them, and by the time the door was opened a mass of black humanity, densely packed as herrings in a barrel, and squeezing each other with such force that it seemed as if ribs of iron could not stand it, sought admission to record their votes. There was a wild eagerness on their faces, an appearance of intense earnestness, and among them were several who seemed to be the leading spirits, and who kept up a perpetual talking to those around them. The crowd continued to increase every moment, until the street was obstructed, but subsequently the negroes were compelled to form in line along the side-walk from the northeast corner of Seventeenth and Main. Everything went on quietly until about 9 o'clock, when a colored man named Davis signified his intention to vote the Conservative ticket. He was immediately threatened with violence by the negroes within his hearing, and on leaving the polling place and going up Main Street towards the St. Charles Hotel, he was pursued by a mob of negroes, and was struck by a negro fellow named John Crump. In a moment there was a tremendous rush of negroes after Davis, evidently with the view of wreaking summary vengeance on him, when a policeman at the polls gave the alarm, and immediately several officers, stationed on duty at the cage, rushed out, accompanied by special officer Tyler. When the police came up, they found Davis surrounded by a furious mob, and endeavored to save him from violence. Many of the negro mob, however, swore that they would take Crump (who had been arrested) out of the hands of the police, and one of them, named Evans Paine, who made himself very conspicuous, swore that he would die before any of his party (the assaulting party) should be taken to the station house, and at the same time he made an effort to rescue Crump from the police. As soon as Paine made this attempt, officer Tyler laid hold of him, but Paine resisted violently, and then officers Smoot and Ball and other officers came to Mr. Tyler's assistance. At this moment the scene was one of the wildest excitement, and the police had a most violent struggle in the midst of a furious mob of negroes. This having been observed by Colonel Hartsook, the officer in charge of the detachment of troops stationed at the corner of Seventeenth and Main street, came up promptly at a double-quick with his men with fixed bayonets, while at the same time a detachment of cavalry came down Main street. The cavalry drew their sabres and the infantry brought their muskets to a charge, for it was absolutely necessary to do so, so furious was the mob, and after an evident and persistent reluctance on the part of the negroes to give up their object, the mob was dispersed, and the police, aided by the military, succeeded in carrying Crump and Paine to the cage.—As we have said, the scene was one of the wildest excitement, and, notwithstanding the brave and determined conduct of the police, the prisoners would most certainly have been rescued if it had not been for the intervention of the military, for the negro mob was overwhelming, and their intention to rescue the rioters and get at Davis with a view of assaulting him was most determined. Any one looking at the police in the midst of that furious and fiendish mob must have seen that, if the military had not come up, in a few minutes more their lives would be most imminently endangered. Yet the officers, while they did their duty manfully, did not in any instance use unnecessary violence. The rioters, Paine and Crump, were subsequently sent to the Libby, where they were securely locked up. The military did their duty in a most praiseworthy manner, exhibiting the conduct of well-disciplined soldiers, and using only as much force as was necessary to restore order."

Instead of conciliation towards the South we plant an ineradicable sting of degradation. Instead of encouraging a Union sentiment we make the Union the synonym for a local negro government. Instead of promoting order we incite a servile war. Instead of attracting capital, we repel it by vesting power in the class who own none. Instead of guarding the public debt, we add to its hazards by giving power to a class of persons, with little property or intelligence, hostile to taxes, and ready for every agrarian project. Instead of restoring the great cotton culture, which has brought so much wealth to the national coffers, we destroy it by an odious discriminating tax and by demoralizing labor. And so it is with all the Southern industries. All lie prostrate. The South is a dead member of the Union. As a matter of course, what do we find there but general gloom and depression? It may not be said of all that fair land as of Egypt, that "there is not one house in which there is not one dead," but it may be said in strict truth that there is not a Southern household to-day in which the bread of the people is not made bitter by oppression, by hopelessness, and by a continual dread and sense of insecurity. White families are abandoning the graves of their ancestors, removing to the North, to Brazil, anywhere to avoid risk in the perils of a servile war. Such is Radical statesmanship! Is it to stand? How long shall the people of the country endure it and its authors? Discard, if you please, every thought of mercy for the fallen, of the magnanimity which ought to characterize power, and ask simply the question, whether, in the interests of the Union, the Constitution, our own material wealth, progress, and well being, this most wicked and monstrous policy must not be reversed.—Nat. Intel.

ADMONITIONS TO THE SOUTHERN PRESS.

The Herald says:

"We notice in the Southern press a disposition to attach an importance and significance to the late elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio which the circumstances do not fully warrant. It is true there is in the results of these elections much cause for congratulation to the Southern people, as well as to those of the North who have become tired and sickened with corrupt radical misgovernment. But our Southern friends should not go off at a tangent upon these signal evidences of a returning sense of reason among the radical majorities of the North. They should not hurrah before they are out of the woods. They should keep calm and collected—we will not say "subdued," for they have acknowledged themselves so already. They should not be too exultant; they should utter no taunts, make no threats, nor do aught else to arouse anew the spirit of relentless persecution with which they have been pursued by the radicals since the Congressional project of reconstruction was first broached. The end is not yet. Much remains to be done, and it behooves the Southern people to tax still further the measure of their patience, until the clouds that hover over them are entirely dispelled and they are again blessed with a serene political sky."

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

ASSETS $7,000,000.

THIS COMPANY ISSUES TEN YEAR NON-FORFEITING ENDOWMENT POLICIES, contracting to pay the amount insured at death or the specified time.

An endowment policy presents the double attraction of providing for one's family or other dependents in case he should be cut off before a specified age, or of securing to himself independence, in case he attains the age. Thus insuring for ten years, a note for one half of the cost will be taken by paying six per cent interest.

This plan gives, in addition to all the advantages of life insurance, a safe and convenient INVESTMENT for one's savings, till they have accumulated to a definite amount; which he receives in one sum at the specified time.

RAILROADS.

IMPORTANT TO

CAROLINA SHIPPERS.

THE NEW

Baltimore and Carolina Grand Trunk

FREIGHT LINE,

VIA PETERSBURG, VA.,

Comprising the following great Freight Routes:

THE POWHATAN

Steamboat Company's Freight Line of Steamers,

PETERSBURG AND WELDON,

RALEIGH AND GASTON,

NORTH CAROLINA.

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND WELDON,
ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,
WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,
CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,
And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Kinsboro', Columbia, Sumterville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near these great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c. &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a SEA Route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c. &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery to the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways ☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

For rates and all further information, apply to any Freight Agent on the Line, or at the Great Through Freight Route.

THE PETERSBURG RAILROAD has been completed to the Steamers' Wharf on the Appomattox River, thereby avoiding all drayage through the city.

Connections and other arrangements have been made at Weldon with the Wilmington and Weldon and Raleigh and Gaston Railroads and their connections, viz: North Carolina Railroad to Charlotte, S. C.; Charlotte and South Carolina Railroad to Columbia, S. C.; Wilmington and Manchester and North Eastern Railroads to Charleston, S. C.; Cheraw and Darlington Railroad to Cheraw, S. C.; and Western North Carolina Railroad to Morganton, N. C., embracing the following named stations on the North Carolina roads:

Wilmington and Weldon Railroad—Halifax, Enfield, Whitaker's Battleboro', Joyner's, Wilson, Black Creek, Nahunta, Goldsboro', Pikeville, Everett's, Dudley, Mt. Olive, Faison, Bowden's, Warsaw, Magnolia, Rose Hill, Teachey's, Duplin Road, Lecesburg, South Washington, Burgaw, Ashboro', Rocky Point, Marlboro', and North East.

Raleigh and Gaston Railroad—Gaston, Littleton, Macon, Warrenton, Ridgeway, Junction, Henderson, Kittrell's, Franklinton and Wake Forest.

North Carolina Railroad—Morrisville, Carpenter's, Hillsboro', Mebane's, Haw River, Graham, Company Shops, Gibson's, McLean's, Greensboro', Jamestown, High Point, Thomasville, Lexington, Holtsburg, Salisbury, China Grove, Concord and Harrisburg.

Western North Carolina Railroad—Marion, Burnsville Asheville, Rutherfordton, Hendersonville, Marshall and Waynesville.

Charlotte and South Carolina Railroad—Columbia, S. C.

North Eastern Railroad—Charleston, S. C.

Cheraw and Darlington Railroad—To Cheraw, S. C.

Arrangements have also been made for carrying through freights at Petersburg and City Point, with the Powhatan Steamboat Company to Baltimore, No. 20 Light Street Wharf, J. W. Brandt, President, with Upper line of steamers to Philadelphia, W. P. Clyde, Agent, 14 N. Delaware street, and with Old Dominion Steamship Company for New York, shipping point Pier 38 North River, foot of Beach street, N. L. McCready, President, office 187 Greenwich street, corner of Dey.

Through freights marked via Petersburg to or from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and above named places in North and South Carolina, transported as cheap and expeditiously as by any other route.

Through bills lading will be given with the rates guaranteed at the depots and shipping points of the companies comprising the Great Through Route.

To insure the safety of freight, direct your consignments to mark all produce and merchandise care of Railroad Agent, Petersburg, who will forward them free of extra charge to their destination, North or South.

MAGNIFICENT EVER USED.

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERed Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally.—For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enableseus system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and ease to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact wherever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston D. Jones, one of the most eminent and well known Physicians in the Southern States, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.

WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1867.

GEN. CANBY'S ORDER TO RELEASE ON BAIL.

We were gratified to learn, by telegraph, night before last, that Gen. Canby had issued an order to Post Commanders, to release on bail all persons not subject to the articles of war, held in arrest by the military authorities. This we understand to include all civilians, who are charged with violations of the laws of the land.

This is what ought to have been done at first, and seems to us to be in strict accordance with the requirements of the Reconstruction Acts. But does this order require that the parties should be bailed to answer before the civil Courts of the State? We hope so. This is what the Reconstruction Acts seem to contemplate.

The military arm of the government is professedly in the South, to preserve order and quiet, and to aid in the enforcement of the civil law, whenever the civil power of the State cannot or will not do so. In our present condition, this may be necessary. At least, it may be a proper precautionary measure of the government to prevent disorder, and if the military arm is used discreetly, and only to effect that object, it would be esteemed by the lovers of peace and good order as a blessing. But arrests and trials of civilians for civil offences, before military courts, except in those cases where the civil courts will not do their duty, tend to alienate the feelings and sympathies of the people from the military and those agents of the government who order them. None of the Southern States, perhaps, have a better class of military officers and agents, to enforce order among them, than North Carolina. Some of them, so far as our information extends, are spoken of in terms of the warmest kind; yet it is evident that others of them lend too willing a ear to a class of men, who are proverbial for their hostility and acerbity towards our people, and whose bitterness does not hesitate to oppress and seek to have arrested innocent and worthy men, because of mere personal or political hatred. The great body of our people would scorn to do this. When they say "let by-gones be by-gones," they mean it. No Conservative man in the State harbors hostility either to the government or to individuals, for the past. If hostility does exist, it is only because of the persistent bitterness and acrimony of those whose aims are selfish or partizan.

That our State Courts are disposed to neglect their duty, or to act partially towards any class of citizens, we do not believe.—They have, in no instance, given any countenance to the prosecution of any one by Radical sympathizer, or for any politicial or other unworthy consideration; nor have they screened men because the Court sympathized with them. We challenge any one to produce reliable evidence to the contrary. The intimation, therefore, that the civil Courts are not disposed to do justice to all, is, we believe, totally gratuitous and without foundation. It does, therefore, appear to us, with all proper deference to the military authorities, that military trials of civilians, how much soever necessary they may possibly be in other States, cannot be necessary in North Carolina.

On the score of economy to the government, there can be no question that the trial of civilians, by Military Courts, is exceedingly expensive and damaging to the government. Ours is a great, powerful and rich government, but it cannot bear unnecessary expense, which can be avoided, only at the risk of making the people poorer. Justice, strict justice, such as is contemplated by the laws of the land, is more certain, more cheaply and more promptly obtained, and the true principles of civil liberty more readily maintained, in our Civil, than in our Military Courts. At least, the people believe it, and we desire to see the day speedily, when our military men will see the reason and propriety of appealing to the civil rather than to the military arm of the government for the vindication of innocence and law, and the enforcement of justice.

As to offences against the "army regulations," or articles of war, no question or differences of opinion can exist. The voice of the people readily accords with the decision of inspiration, "Render unto Cæsar the things that belong to Cæsar, and unto God the things that be God's."

At Lynchburg, Va., on the day of election, a colored man, who voted with the Conservatives, was attacked by the negro Radicals, when he turned upon them and shot three,—one in the mouth, one in the foot and the other in the abdomen.

By reference to the article on our first page, it will be seen that in Richmond, also, even in the presence of the military, the lives of Conservative colored men were endangered at the hands of the misled and infuriated Radical blacks. White Radicals, who kept out of harm's way, were the instigators.

And this is enlightened suffrage and "freedom!"

Negro Organizations.—The Petersburg papers contain sad accounts of the discipline and savage tyranny of the negro organizations of that City. Such things cannot endure. They would bring general wreck and anarchy upon society.

We hear of some of the results of the same state of things in this county, under the workings of the Union League. We expect, in a few days, to be able to make some startling disclosures connected with this matter.

A WORD TO THE COLORED MEN.

Are you still in a state of slavery? The vast majority of you are. Every intelligent and observing man sees that you are slaves. We do not speak of slavery of the body and muscles; from that you have been emancipated, and you are free to labor or to starve, to become useful and respectable citizens, in your appropriate sphere of life, or to lounge about in unprofitable idleness and indolence. But your wills and minds are in a state of subjection, more degrading than any servitude of the body. You obey, with an abject servility, the behests of a certain set of bad and selfish white men, who have constituted themselves your masters, and who drive you, with whip and goad, as oxen are driven under the yoke. You are thereby affording the people of the North, —those who have just refused to give you the privilege of the ballot in Ohio,—the strongest justification of their prejudice against you; you are thereby demonstrating, beyond doubt, what nine-tenths of the white race in your own midst already believe, that, as a whole, you are incapable, as yet, of exercising intelligently the right of suffrage. You are heaping up against yourself an amount of prejudice and hostility, which will be your ruin, just so sure as that the sun shines. At the beck and bidding of a few white political demagogues and adventurers, who, you cannot fail to perceive, if your eyes are half open, are hated and despised by the immense majority of their own race and color, you have arrayed yourselves against those who have been your best friends in the past, and who will be your safest human trust and reliance in the future, unless you continue the senseless course of alienation which you are now pursuing.

Gen. Howard says that, in the two years and a half that have elapsed since your emancipation, your race has decreased one million and a-quarter. We will not go into the philosophy of this diminution; many reasons may be assigned for it. But the Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau says so, and you have confidence in him and his statements. Before this falling-off, you were greatly inferior in numbers to the white men of the South,—to say nothing of the great white population of the North, who, as recent events have proven, are far more bitter against you, and naturally so, than those among whom you have been reared,—and, to-day, the disproportion is greater than ever. At any thing like the same rate of decrease, which has already occurred, how will you stand in five years,—how in ten or twenty? Where will then be the wild and silly fancies of political power, with which designing men are filling your heads, solely that they may serve a present purpose? You will be feeble in numbers and utterly without friends; for even those who are now using you, will be the first to desert you, when they find you are in a condition to be of no further service to them. You can prevent all this. Be industrious, provident and thrifty,—attend more to your morals, your education and your work, and less to politics,—and your race will not decrease, or at least but slowly.—Be courteous and conciliatory, show by rather than the enmity, of the white race, and you ought to know that they will not repel you.

The most of you are not only slaves yourselves, but you seek to make slaves of those who are not disposed to be so. Some of your number, we know, are conservative in feeling and wish to do right, but the mass of you intimidate and threaten them. They hardly dare, even, to attend a public meeting that is not held under the auspices of the League, much less to vote as they please, for fear of the consequences with which you menace them. In Virginia, you sought to mob and even to slay every man of your color who dared to think and act for himself. It is so here, to some extent. We know respectable colored men, who deprecate your rashness and folly, but who are afraid to speak of them except in "bated breath."

We tell you again that you are working ruin for yourselves. You will not heed us now, and we are, perhaps, but wasting time, paper and ink; but the day will come when you will remember these words, and wish that you had regarded them.

Indiana.—The Democrats in this State have gained 11,610 on the vote of 1866, when Trusler (Radical) was elected by 14,200.

Ohio.—The recent vote in Ohio was the largest ever polled in that State. The Radical loss was over 40,000 votes.

Radicalism Overlapping Itself.—Congress has sent a committee to inquire whether Maryland has a State government "republican in form" or not. The "inquiry" in the case is a mere sham. What the committee intend to do is, to decide what is a "republican form of government," not on any evidence of facts, but according to their own ideas; and then Congress is expected to apply the rule, which they will thus lay down, to all the States in succession. Last year it was held that the government of Connecticut was not "republican," and probably this year Ohio will fall under the same condemnation. It would be rather curious if Congress should discover that there were only three or four "republican" States in the Union. Where would it find its authority to reconstruct all the rest!—N. Y. Times.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Press (Radical) speaks thus oracularly of the situation in Alabama:

"The people having voted a Convention to elect their delegates, that body will meet on the 6th of November next. The delegates are composed of seventy-eight whites and nineteen blacks. The Constitution which they will adopt will probably be an almost literal copy of the Constitution of Vermont. After this is adopted, which will not take long, it will be referred to the people, and will be ratified by an overwhelming majority. It will then be taken to Washington, where we trust to see it accepted at an early day, so that Alabama may take her rank in the Union as a thoroughly reconstructed State."

The Old School Presbyterian Synod of Indiana has declared in favor of the re-union of the different branches of Presbyterians.

A WORD TO CONSERVATIVES.

The crisis is at hand in this State, when every Conservative man should do his duty fully. If you are true Conservatives, you are for the Constitution and Union, you are neither advocates of negro political equality, negro supremacy, nor of confiscation nor of disqualification for past political offences.—You are friends of the negro, willing to grant him freedom and all the rights necessary to freedom, but you do not belong to that class of men, who believe that the interests of Constitutional liberty can be safe a moment, if committed to the control of ignorant and vicious men. You believe that the power to control the government of the State and of the nation must be kept in the hands of the white race, in order to the peace and happiness of both races.

But to secure this great end, there must be no division among true Conservative men. No man is a sound Conservative or can be recognised by you as such, who is willing to compromise or barter away Conservative principles or Conservative men, for personal gain, or to gratify personal spleen or dislike to any one.

A true Conservative said to us the other day: "I have no choice of men. I will support Conservative men who are nominated by the Conservative people of the county, no matter who they are. If the people nominate me, I will serve them and do all I can to elect the whole ticket, because I believe no citizen ought to back out and disobey the call of the Conservative people, at a time like this. But if they prefer others to myself, I will support the ticket with all my might and do all I can to elect the ticket." That we call the true metal—there is no counterfeit in that. And if the county Convention nominates such men, we shall go for them, no matter who they are.

Let, then, the Conservatives be on the alert, and let them be sure to bring out their best men next Thursday, looking solely to the true interests of the people and the State.

For the Sentinel.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 22nd., 1867.

Messrs. Editors:—We are told by Washington Irving, that it was on the morning of Friday, 12th. of October, 1492, that Columbus first beheld the New World. "When the day dawned, he saw before him a level and beautiful Island, several leagues in extent, of great freshness and verdure, and covered with trees like a continued orchard. Though everything appeared in the wild luxuriance of untamed nature, yet the Island was evidently populous, for the inhabitants were seen issuing from the woods and running from all parts to the shore, where they stood gazing at the ships. They were all perfectly naked, and, from their attitudes and gestures, appeared to be lost in astonishment. Columbus made signals for the ships to cast anchor and the boats to be manned and armed. He entered his own boat, richly attired in scarlet, and bearing the royal standard; whilst Martin Alonzo Penzon, and Vincent Janez, his brother, put off in company in their boats, each bearing the banner of the enterprise emblazoned with a green cross, having on each side the letters F and I, the initials of the Castilian Monarchs, Fernando and Isabel, surmounted by crowns. No sooner did he land, than he threw himself upon his knees, kissed the earth, and returned thanks to God with tears of joy. His example was followed by the rest, whose hearts indeed overflowed with the same feelings of gratitude. Columbus, then rising, drew his sword, displayed the royal standard, and, assembling round him the two Captains, with Rodrigo de Escobedo, notary of the armament, Rodrigo Sanchez, and the rest that he landed, he took solemn possession in the name of the Castilian sovereigns, giving the Island the name of San Salvador."

From that eventful day, though robbed of its name, to Christopher Columbus has belonged the immortal honor of the discovery of America.

The notice, going the rounds of the papers, of interesting ancient inscriptions at the Potomac Falls, is all a boax, gotten up, a gentleman of the Smithsonian Institution informs me, by a young man of lively imagination, for his own amusement and to puzzle others. It has never been contradicted in the papers, because it was thought people would see through it. However, many have been deceived from the high character of the journals which published it, and some it led to believe that the great navigator was not entitled to all the credit bestowed upon him by the civilized world for genius and daring.

A number of years ago, Robert S. Moore, a citizen of Newbern and an officer in the United States navy, procured from a prison, on the Island of St. Domingo, a portion of the iron bolts to which Columbus had been chained. This gallant and accomplished young officer fell a victim to fever, on his voyage home, and was buried at sea, though the coveted prize reached the hands of his family through the kindness of his comrades, with an interesting account of the manner in which it was secured, and which was published in the papers of that day, in North Carolina. Never shall I forget, though a mere boy, with what awe I then beheld the little anchors, formed from the bits of iron which had held the great Discoverer of this mighty Continent, in pain and anguish, to the damp walls of a dark and gloomy dungeon, far away from kindred and friends, in a new and barbarous land. Oh! if they could but speak, with what reverence one would listen to the sad tale of the troubled soul of the manacled and imprisoned Captain, and how much we could learn of the cost of his greatness and renown and of his wonderful achievements for civilization.

Very interesting discoveries are now constantly being made in natural history, and whilst the recent discovery, by our own able State Geologist, Prof. Kerr, of human bones, with the bones of extinct animals, in a marl bed in South Carolina, may endanger him with a certain class of Theologians, as Columbus was, in advocating the spherical figure of the earth, of being convicted not only of error, but of heterodoxy, it will certainly sap the foundation of the very eloquent lecture of the Rev. Samuel Bryan, on Satan, and make some of the human family, at least, date anterior to six thousand years, and more aged than our great grand parents Adam and Eve.

These discoveries attract much attention from such distinguished Paleontologists as Prof. Meek, and all the reports in regard to them are received here with real interest and pleasure.

In a subsequent letter, if you have a spare corner, I may say something about a similar discovery far down in the South, and in the mines of California, and mention a few of the curious and ancient relics in the Smithsonian Institution, the great temple of science of the Country. D.

A machine which will remove the pits from 100 cherries a minute has been invented in Germany.

For the Sentinel.

A CARD.

Editors of the Sentinel:—I see that, in the last Raleigh Standard, (W. W. Holden) "N. W." nominates me for a seat in the next Radical negro Convention that shall assemble in Raleigh, and makes my name prominent for the nomination to Congress on the same ticket in this District.

This he does, by assigning to me almost every quality to qualify me for both of these eminent positions. One, however, he leaves out—by oversight, I doubt not. He does not charge me with imitating other people's sheep into the Union League. But he does say for me that I am "an ignorant, drunken vagabond," been indicted for vagrancy, and been in the Georgia Penitentiary. Thank you, brother Holden, for the zeal with which you advocate my claims to promotion in our party. Could'st you add that, after volunteering in the Confederate army, I stole something and ran away to East Tennessee, got a blue coat and pretended to join the Union army? That would not have been any greater stretch of truth than what you have said, and it would certainly have procured me the Radical nomination for Congress; but you have put me forward very much, and there are only two difficulties in the way of my promotion, that I see. One is, that everybody that knows me knows that there is not a word of truth in all that you have said about me; that I have never committed but one crime worthy of the Penitentiary, and that was voting for you for Governor, when you ran against Vance, and for that I have never been punished, save in my own conscience. The other difficulty in the way is that you, Bro. Holden, have such a character for truth that I am afraid even the negroes won't believe you. I know the white folks will not! And then there is that glorious Billy Henderson, who has outstripped us all, by getting indicted for perjury and stealing a mule at the same term of the court. If you don't mind, he will rival you for Governor.

WILLIAM H. SNEAD.

[Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.]

IMPORTANT LETTER OF THE POST MASTER GENERAL.

Washington, October 22.—Postmaster General Randall, in reply to a friend in Wisconsin, asking what he ought to do about supporting the republican State ticket, writes that he would never vote for any man or any ticket who favor impeachment of the President; that there is neither reason nor excuse for this war upon Mr. Johnson; that the latter has endeavored to bring about, upon just terms, a complete restoration of the Union; he has followed the policy of Mr. Lincoln, which all republicans once approved; he has had no other policy, and if this policy had been carried out, there would have been perfect peace, the Union fully restored, and representatives, loyal all through the war, from the Southern States, would be filling the vacant seats of the House of Rep. resentatives.

He says that the republican party as constituted to-day does not favor a single principle upon which the government carried on the war, that it is time the work of the dominant party, outside of the constitution, was stopped, and the country restored, as it ought to have been long ago, if the republican party had not abandoned its own tenets, and made war upon the President because he was true to the principles upon which the people elected him to his high office.

The White Boys in Blue.—A meeting was held last evening in Masonic Hall of the old soldiers of the army of the Potomac and the army of the West opposed to negro suffrage and the arbitrary and despotic schemes of the Radical Congress. There was a large attendance of officers and soldiers, "comrades who had drank from the same canteen," and passed through the perils and mudsock's banks, under the bluffs of Vicksburg and Port Hudson, the one-armed heroes who had defiled through the torn streets of Richmond with Grant's legions of braves, and saw the surrender under the famous apple tree of Appomattox. These gallant veterans met for the purpose of creating an organization to counteract the evil effects of the Loyal League Clubs and the bogus office-holding soldiers of the so-called Grand Army of the Republic. Believing, as one of them said, that the country is now in as great jeopardy as it was in 1861, before he entered the ranks to put down the rebellion, they were determined to organize in every State in the Union in branch societies of the parent stem, under the name of the "White Boys in Blue," to stand by the Union, the Constitution, and the laws. The meeting was organized, and the following sub-committee appointed by the Executive Committee to draft a plan of organization and platform: General J. H. Hobart Ward, Captain John W. Crump, Colonel Levi S. Chatfield, General W. S. Hillyer, formerly chief of General Grant's staff, presided. The meeting then adjourned at the call of the chair.—N. Y. World, 22nd.

Negro Suffrage.—The Syracuse Journal (Republican) infers from the returns of the Ohio elections that negro suffrage must be abandoned. It says:

"General Hayes, the Governor elect, congratulates the Republicans, in a speech made since the election, upon their deliverance from the colored suffrage issue, for several years to come.

"We mention these things for the benefit of certain people who do not seem inclined to take a hint from passing events. The truth is, that unrestricted negro suffrage has been run into the ground. The time has come for planting ourselves upon impartial and intelligent suffrage. We can stand on that."

The New York Times (Republican) of last Saturday expresses itself as follows:

"Giving universal suffrage to the blacks was never a measure commended by good judgment and regard for the public welfare. It was resorted to mainly as a party expedient. It seems to be necessary in order to prevent the whole political power of the South from falling back into rebel hands.—But every one felt that it was a hazardous step, the result of which was by no means certain. The evils which will unquestionably grow out of universal negro suffrage in the South will compel a revision of the whole suffrage question."

Trouble Nipped in the Bud.—A delegation of negro men waited on Judge Tabb yesterday morning and proposed to him the monstrous idea of releasing the negro prisoners in the city jail for the purpose of allowing them to vote. The Judge very properly refused the request, whereupon the party threatened to mob the jail and release the prisoners, but Mayor Ludlow promptly interfered and arrested the ring leader of the party.—Norfolk Virginian, 23rd.

The Raleigh Sentinel nails to the wall the canard which was last week going the rounds of the press that strenuous efforts were being made in that place to revive the old Democratic party. It is bitterly opposed to starting anything like party feeling in our midst so long as the one common enemy of Radicalism exists. We thought when we saw it that the good people of that section were losing their senses if the telegram was true.—Roanoke News.

Chicago is eating frogs voraciously this season, and has already consumed 100,000, with the expectation of tripling the number next year.

A Card—To the Citizens of Raleigh.

THE UNDERSIGNED BEGS LEAVE TO state that a box of Books, belonging to him, were deposited by the Southern Express Co. in their Office on Fayetteville Street, in the City of Raleigh, with other effects, for safe keeping, in the Spring of '63. This building was entered by Wheeler's Cavalry, the said box opened and its contents scattered around the building, and the most valuable of the books, including Lexicons of the Latin, Greek and Hebrew languages, seem to have been carried off, and are probably in the possession of persons in Raleigh. These works, valuable only to a Scholar and Theologian, contain for the most part, the owner's name. He requests, therefore, that parties having them will return them to Mr. Bates, Office of Southern Express Co., and will remand them to the rightful owner, who will be most thankful to recover them.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIENDS OF THE CONSTITUTION AND OF CIVIL LIBERTY—RALLY!!!—Let us meet at the Court House on Saturday night next to organize for the coming election.

The election is at hand! The enemy is organized and confident! He advocates a proscriptive policy, hostile to the interests and future prosperity of North Carolina!

Come one! Come all!! Without regard to former party connections—all who stand firmly by the Constitution of their country, and are lovers of civil liberty!

Let us be up and doing! Let us with one united effort defeat the schemes for our ruin, and save our government, and liberty for ourselves and our children!

Come one!! Come all!!!

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—J. M. S. Rogers & Son: Commission Merchants, No. 23, Commerce Street, Norfolk, Va. This is a most worthy and reliable North Carolina firm, which will attend promptly to all business entrusted to it. See card.

Sweet Cardenas Molasses, Havana Oranges, Liverpool and American Salt, Gunny Cloth, Rope, Dillon's and Beard's Iron Ties: Worth & Daniel, Wilmington.

Agricultural Ware-House, Labor-Saving Pump, &c: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

Rev. Mr. Tillinghast, Rector of St. Luke's, Salisbury, addresses a Card to the citizens of Raleigh, which we hope they will read. The books are particularly valuable to Mr. T., and we hope that his appeal will result in the recovery of, at least, some of them.

Grand Auction sale, on Tuesday, 29th., of Hardware and Cutlery, Ready-Made Clothing, Hats and Shoes, Dry Goods, Groceries, Wines, Liquors, Crockery, &c.: Pullaim, Jones & Co.' A credit of 60 days will be given on all sums over $50.

THE MEMORIAL CEMETERY.—This charming and attractive spot is in beautiful order, at present. The Superintendent, Mr. Winters, is engaged in transplanting shrubbery, and is on the grounds at all times, attentive and diligent in the performance of his duties. We would suggest to the ladies that now is the time to send plants, &c. to Mr. W., who will see that they are properly set out and cared for. Let the opening of another Spring find the hallowed graves of our noble dead surrounded and adorned, more luxuriantly than ever, with the choicest beauties of Nature and the richest offerings of affection.

LUNATIC ASYLUM.—As one evidence of the excellent management of this Institution, in all its departments, we may mention that, under the diligent supervision of the Surperintendent, Dr. Fisher, and the Steward, J. H. Moore, Esq., there is attached to it, in full cultivation, the finest garden of winter vegetables, perhaps, in the State. We have had ocular demonstration that the Turnips are particularly large and very abundant.

PASTORAL CALL.—We learn that the Baptist Congregation of this City have invited the Rev. Dr. Williams, of the Theological Seminary at Greenville, S. C., to take pastoral charge of the Church in this City. Dr. W. is said to be a Divine of ripe attainments.

Rev. Dr. Skinner, the late Pastor, will leave for his new sphere of duty in Nashville, Tenn., on Monday next.

MESSRS. M. L. HOLMES and W. M. Robbins, the Conservative candidates in Rowan for the Convention, publish a list of appointments extending from to-morrow up to the 16th of November. They invite the Radical candidates to meet them and discuss the questions of the day. This is right. Let us have, in every County, however great the odds against us, a vigorous canvass. Let the foul enormities of Radicalism be fully exposed.

ORANGE.—On Saturday, the 2nd day of November, there will be a meeting of the Conservatives of Orange, at Hillsboro', to nominate candidates for the Convention.—Orange will be O. K.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.—The Roanoke News announces the death of an aged and esteemed citizen of Halifax county, Mr. Alfred W. Moore, who was taken suddenly ill with paralysis, at his residence in the lower end of the county, on Sunday evening, and expired early Monday morning. Mr. M. was in his 72nd year, was a brother of the Hon. B. F. Moore, of this City, was for many years one of the Stewards of Roanoke Circuit, North Carolina Conference, and was beloved by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

CITY WHOLESALING.—We were glad to see, on yesterday morning, twelve cases of Dry Goods before the door of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., sold at wholesale prices to a good house in the up-country. Also at Messrs. Pulliam, Jones & Co's a number of packages for the same house. This is what we have believed might be done, if our merchants would put on a little extra energy. Messrs. Creech, Cooke, the Youngs, Heartt, Rosenbaum, Kline, Œttinger and others, we learn, frequently make up wholesale packages for our country merchants on the various Rail Road lines.—Andrews and other grocers, Andrews and Grausman, Clothiers, do the same, and we presume most of our large merchants can supply the demand. It is perfectly plain that our small country dealers can make it to their advantage to buy here, and our merchants ought to offer every possible inducement, rather than make it necessary for merchants, who buy small stocks, to go North. Besides dry goods and groceries, J. Brown, with Hart & Lewis, and Messrs. Briggs & Dodd, can supply hardware, and Kline and others have large stocks of Crockery, at wholesale prices, to sell to country merchants.

JUDGE CHASE.

The impression made on the Radicals by recent events is conspicuously shown by an article on Judge Chase which the Tribune copies from the Cincinnati Commercial.—That paper says:

"As for the schemes of vengeance in the form of the confiscation of lands of Southern white men, and their division among the blacks, Judge Chase discountenances them entirely. The notion that Congress should seize upon the President and thrust him, with blows and maledictions, out of office, has never been encouraged by Judge Chase. On the contrary, it was his opinion that no little mischief was done during the late political campaign by the wild threats of summary impeachment that were freely made.

Judge Chase is held responsible for the presentation of the negro suffrage issue in Ohio, during the last campaign. He never urged it. He recognized the fact that while in the Southern States, where the great body of loyalists were blacks, negro suffrage was demanded by considerations of the public safety, no such demand was made in the North; and that the Southern whites might, in a great degree, have their prejudices conquered by coupling suffrage with amnesty, while there was no such inducement in the North, to make application of the golden rule."

From the confessions of the Tribune it seems that Mr. Greeley is not the author of the Reconstruction plan on the basis of universal amnesty and universal suffrage. According to that journal Mr. Chase "was the first public man, after the close of the war and the death of Lincoln, to call the attention of the President to the only solid basis of reconstruction—the enfranchisement of everybody, suffrage for all slaves, amnesty for all rebels." This, then, is the position which he has occupied. The concentrated light which the October elections have thrown upon him has revealed this fact; Chase, instead of being the man who would make traitors odious, in accordance with the Radical cry, has been for universal pardon. President Johnson has been denounced by the Radicals from one end of the land to the other for his leniency to the rebels, yet the leaders of the Radical party urged the President to go further in that direction than he ever thought of going.—N. Y. World.

"HUMAN PROGRESS."—The following is said to have occurred at Union Superior Court. A colored gentleman on the jury is objected to on the ground of incompetency—the following questions propounded by the counsel to a juror:

"Sam, are you a free-holder?"
"Yes Sar."
"Have you any land?"
"No Sar."
"What do you mean, then, by saying you are a free holder?"
"I means bein' free and holdin' on, and so on."
"What is a verdict, Sam?"
"I dun know, Sar."
"What is a plaintiff?"
"Dun know, Sar."
"What is a defendant?"
"I dun know, Sar, I'se green 'bout dese tings."

Here Gen. Canby's order was read, from which it appeared he was competent—so the man and brother was duly "cussed" in, and took his seat.—Char. News.

RECONSTRUCTION—THIRD MILITARY DISTRICT.

MONTGOMERY, Oct. 19.—Maj. Gen. Pope, commanding the third military district, has ordered the session of the Alabama Constitutional Convention under the reconstruction acts to commence on the 5th of November next.

THE RIGHT OF SUFFRAGE.—We understand that many of the sable "wards of the nation" had their votes thrown out yesterday in consequence of being unable to remember the names by which they were registered.—O, ye mighty sovereigns! This is the elegance of the general franchise.—Norfolk Journal, 23rd.

"As to the suspension of an officer during trial, that seems to us constitutional, since it may be necessary."

The above morceau of ratiocination we clip from a Radical sheet. What a veritable pea under the thimble the good old Constitution has become in lawless hands.—N. Y. World.

Work on the Antietam National Cemetery has been suspended for the want of funds.—This has been occasioned by New York and Pennsylvania withholding their subscriptions until an examination could be made of the accounts of the officers.

The Tribune says: "The Ritualists are, it is said, rapidly increasing in New York.—The latest accession to their ranks is the parish of the Annunciation, Fourteenth street, of which Dr. Seabury has been so long the rector. The services are almost entirely choral, and the boys wear surplices, as at St. Albans."

The University of Cambridge, England, has just imitated some of our American colleges by a wholesale conferral of degrees. It has dubbed all the American bishops in England, LL. D.

A New York judge has decided that telegraphic dispatches are not private property, and copies can be ordered to be produced in court as evidence.

The introduction of music into the public schools of Lowell, Mass., has been so successfully accomplished that each of the grammar schools is now to have a piano.

THE NEXT PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN—THE VIRGINIA ELECTIONS—DEMOCRATIC TRIUMPH IN BALTIMORE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24, P. M.

The National Republican Committee, to initiate the Presidential campaign, meets here December 11th, and that of the Democrats meets here on the 1st of November.

The returns from Virginia indicate the success of a Convention, with a predominance of Radicals, and show that the whites and blacks are arrayed against each other almost solidly.

The Democratic candidates are elected in Baltimore by 13,000 majority.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTIONS.

RICHMOND, Oct. 24, P. M.

Returns at Gen. Schofield's Headquarters show conclusively that the State votes in favor of the Convention.

It is also certain that the Radicals control the Convention by fifteen majority.

This City elects the following Radicals, after three days' voting, viz: Hunnicutt, Underwood, Morrissey and two negroes.

The Radical ticket did not receive fifty white votes in the City, nor the Conservative ticket fifty colored votes.

The few negroes voting the Conservative ticket were again chased from the polls, to-day, by negro mobs.

Hunnicutt's son was arrested for tearing up Conservative tickets in the hands of negroes at the Monroe Ward polls and sent to the Libby, but he was subsequently released.

WASHINGTON NEWS,

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24, P. M.

Colfax, in a speech at Cooper Institute, advocated impeachment, and Grant as the Radical nominee.

Grant has Gen. Thomas' report of the proceedings during the recent Nashville election. The particulars are inaccessible.

The retrenchment Committee have confined themselves to the examination of books and papers. As yet they have examined no witnesses.

Secretary Seward was at the White House to-day.

Revenue to-day $309,000.

The Post Master General advertises for contracts under the new postal treaty with England. A departure on alternate days.

Col. Parker reports the Dismal Swamp Canal in a bad condition, with only three and a half feet of water.

Colfax says of Grant: "He is the noblest and the greatest, uniting, as he does, the pertinacity of Wellington with the dash of Napoleon, and his modesty is only equalled by his merits."

ROSADALIS.

READ THE FOLLOWING
HOME CERTIFICATES
From Physicians.

We hereby certify that the Rosadalis is prepared by a Physician, who is an experienced Pharmaceutist and Chemist, and that his remedy is an efficient and reliable one in SCROFULA, Syphilis, &c., it having performed some remarkable cures in this vicinity.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.

Respectfully yours, &c.,
A. B. NOBLES, M. D.

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever. &c.

Rosadalis will cure the very worst cases of Chronic Rheumatism.

HOME CERTIFICATE.

Wilson, N. C., May 6th, 1867.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis.

JAMES WILLIS.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.

Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.

I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.

Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nealy two years with a hard cough which troubled her day and night; at last the emaciated form, glossy eye, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, the cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.

Yours respectfully,
A. E. ASH SMITH

Rosadalis cures all Skin Diseases.

Salt Rheum Cured! Remarkable Cure!!

DR. LAWRENCE, Wilson N. C.:

My Dear Sir—For the last ten years (until recently) I suffered with an inveterate eruption of the skin—called by physicians "Salt Rheum," with which I suffered terribly; the pain and itching was almost intolerable. I tried several of the best physicians in Europe and this country—have visited several celebrated Springs—spent thousand of dollars—and failed to get any better. In December 1865, being in Charleston S. C., I was told by a gentleman at the hotel, that he had been cured of a bad tetter by a medicine called "Rosadalis." I resolved to try it, without any hope though of its doing me any good. I procured a bottle of Messrs. King & Cassidey, and commenced taking it. Finding, to my surprise, that I was improving, I bought four other bottles; but before commencing on the last two, I found I was completely well—the disease having entirely disappeared.

Enclosed find "One Hundred Dollars," which please accept as a token of my gratitude. Why do you not make your invaluable Rosadalis widely known?

Your sincere friend,
W. T. SELTZER.

Major John W. Dunham, one of the editors of the Wilson "North Carolinian," says in the issue of the 20th April, 1867: "I believe from personal experience that the Rosadalis is the finest tonic ever prepared."

From 75 cts. to $4,00. Don't stop until you come to CREECH'S to buy your Hats. In fact, I think I can meet the expectations of all my customers and the public generally, both as to price and quality of ALL Goods.

Now a few words to my customers and friends: You see a great many different styles of advertisements. Some say they are in "luck again;" some say they have "hit the nail on the head;" some "selling out at cost;" some to "make room for a new stock;" some one thing and some another. But allow me to say, whether I am in luck, or whether I hit the nail on the

DAILY SENTINEL.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1867.

LIFT ME OVER.

"O Father! lift me over." It was a little child,
Who stood and poised one slender foot across a stream defiled:
The father stooped and lifted, with fond, careering care,
The little one whose silver voice had reached his ear in prayer.
The throng came swiftly onward, I saw the twain no more,
But all day long, in every strait, I said her sweet words o'er.
Some faltered long, or turned them, another way to view;
Some, holding by a strange hand, with all a child's sweet faith,
Cried, "lift me, lift me over!" and reached the better path.

O Father, up in heaven, whose ear is ever bent
To hear the prayers Thy children raise, whatever their intent,
Wilt thou not heed and listen? and when the floods are high,
Oh! stoop and with thine arm of might bring Thou salvation nigh.
Oh! lift me over when the waves of sorrow come too near,
Whene'er the tempter's siren voice shall whisper in mine ear;
When fever's flush is on my cheek, when aches my throbbing head,
Then let me lie within Thy arms, then soothe my painful head.

Oh! lift me over, Father! Oh! lift me at the last,
When earthly hopes and earthly fears are all forever past;
When roll the waters at my feet, oh! take my trembling hand,
And lift me with one strong, sweet grasp, home to the better land.

MEDICAL SIGNS OF DREAMS.

The second number of Dr. Hammond's Quarterly Journal of Psychological Medicine and Medical Jurisprudence contains a long communication on "Dreaming," from which we extract the following:

"Lively dreams are, in general, a sign of the excitement of nervous action. Soft dreams a sign of slight irritation of the brain; often, in nervous fevers, announcing the approach of a favorable crisis. Frightful dreams are a sign of determination of blood to the head. Dreams about fire are in women, signs of an impending hemorrhage. Dreams about blood and red objects are signs of inflammatory conditions. Dreams about rain and water are often signs of diseased mucous membranes and dropsy. Dreams of distorted forms are frequently a sign of abdominal obstructions and disorders of the liver. Dreams in which the patient sees any part of the body especially suffering, indicate disease in that part. Dreams about death often precede apoplexy, which is connected with determination of blood to the head. The nightmare, (incubus, ephialies,) with great sensitiveness, is a sign of determination of blood to the chest. "To these," says Baron Von Feuchtersleben, "we may add that dreams of dogs, after the bite of a mad dog, often precede the appearance of hydrophobia, but may be only the consequences of excited imagination." Dr. Forbes Winslow quotes several cases in which dreams are said to have been prognostics: "Arnaud de Villeneuve dreamt one night that a black ox bit him on the side. The next day an anthrax appeared on the part bitten. A patient of Galen's dreamt that one of his limbs was changed into stone. Some days after this leg was paralyzed. Roger d' Oxteyn, Knight of the Company of Douglas, went to sleep in good health; towards the middle of the night he saw in his dream a man infected with the plague, quite naked, who attacked him with fury, threw him on the ground after a desperate struggle, and, holding him between his open thighs, vomited the plague into his mouth. Three days after he was seized with the plague and died. Hippocrates remarks that dreams in which one sees black spectres are a bad omen."

PASSING AWAY.

Beautiful and bright are the mornings which come to the young, and hours of gladness follow, and thus for successive years, until at length a day comes, the rising of whose sun was as bright as any that ever preceded it, and yet, before its close, an incident has occurred, almost as unlooked for as a gleam of lightning in a cloudless sky. The unexpected crease has been for the first time noticed in the hitherto polished forehead so faultlessly smooth, and the unwelcome conviction flits across the mind that youth is "passing away." Awhile later, and the cords and veins begin to stand out on the back of the hand, and we instinctively draw it in, as it afraid our friend might also notice that we were "passing away."

Next, the hateful crow feet disfigure the corners of the eyes; we walk around an obstacle rather than clear it at a bound; we let down the bars rather than scale the fence; we are not so hot for argument as once we were; we rather sit in silence than contend; we become less uncompromising in our opinions; our assertions are less dogmatic; our invectives less sweeping; we become more considerate; more disposed to "make allowances" for the faults and foibles and the crimes of others, as if growing more in unison with the sentiment,

"That mercy I to others show,
That mercy show to me!"

and as if we felt that to the "judgment" we were "passing away." Then again a tooth or two has fallen out, and we instinctively take a seat at the window when about to read the morning paper; we look more for facts, less for opinions; men's characters are measured by their conduct rather than by their profession; we are more anxious to learn what men do than what they say; and we consider what is in the heart of greater importance than what is in the head. In all our judgments, we are more deliberate as we become more sensible that there is less ability and less time to correct mistakes, for that we are "passing away."

The streets are now less full, and so are the churches of the friends of our school days; of whom in the whirl of business we have regretful thoughts, and feel of some one more distinctly remembered, "Oh! how I would like to see him again;" or, as to some other one, known to be living, we determine we will write a letter and talk of old times, and make a thousand inquiries about mutual classmates and friends; but in another hour business engagements crowd in—the letter is never written; and the next we hear—"he is dead." Then comes the feeling, with an overwhelming force, that we also are "passing away!" And so we are, dear reader; but be it our care, that while the physical man is letting go its hold on this mortal life, the spiritual shall grow stronger day by day, rising above the clogs and shackles of the mortal frame, preparatory to being disengaged from it altogether, and at the instant of its complete disentanglement, the vision of "the substance of things hoped for" so long breaks in upon the ravished sight, and we have "passed away"-to Heaven!—Hall's Journal of Health.

Gen. Canby's Election Order.

HEADQ'RS SECOND MILITARY DIST.,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 18, 1867.

General Orders No. 101.

By the terms of the Act of Congress entitled "An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, and of the Acts of March 23d, and July 19th, 1867, supplementary thereto,—it is made the duty of the Commanding General of this Military District to cause a registration to be made of the male inhabitants of the State of North Carolina, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards and qualified by the terms of said Acts to vote, and after such registration is complete, to order an election to be held at which the registered voters of said State shall vote for or against a Convention, for the purpose of establishing a Constitution and civil government for the said State, loyal to the Union, and for delegates to said Convention—and to give at least thirty days' notice of the time and place at which said election shall be held; and the said registration having been completed in the State of North Carolina, It is ordered:

First, That an election be held in the State of North Carolina, commencing on Tuesday, the 19th day of November, 1867, and ending on Wednesday, the 20th day of November, 1867, at which all registered voters of said State may vote "For a Convention," or "Against a Convention," and for delegates to constitute the Convention—in case a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a Convention, and in case a majority of the registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such Convention.

Second. It shall be the duty of the Boards of Registration in North Carolina, commencing fourteen days prior to the election herein ordered, and giving reasonable public notice of the time and place thereof, to revise for a period of five days the registration lists, and upon being satisfied that any person not entitled thereto has been registered to strike the name of such person from the list; and such person shall not be entitled to vote. The Boards of Registration shall also, during the same period, add to such registers the names of all persons who at that time possess the qualifications required by said Acts—who have not already been registered.

Third. In deciding who are to be stricken from or added to the registration lists the Boards will be guided by the law of March 24, 1867, and the laws supplementary thereto, and their attention is specially directed to the Supplementary Act of July 19th, 1867.

Fourth. The said election will be held in each County or District at such places as may hereafter be designated, under the superintendence of the Boards of Registration as provided by law and in accordance with instructions hereafter to be given to said Boards in conformity with the Acts of Congress and as far as may be with the laws of North Carolina.

Fifth. All Judges and Clerks employed in conducting said election shall, before commencing to hold the same, be sworn to the faithful performance of their duties, and shall also take and subscribe the oath of office prescribed by law for officers of the United States.

Sixth. The polls shall be opened at such voting places at eight o'clock in the forenoon, and closed at four in the afternoon, of each day, and shall be kept open during these hours without intermission or adjournment.

Seventh. No member of the Board of Registration, who is a candidate for election as a delegate in the Convention shall serve as a Judge or the election in any County or District which he seeks to represent.

Eighth. The Sheriff and other peace officers of each County are required to be present during the whole time that the polls are kept open, and until the election is completed; and will be made responsible that there shall be no interference with Judges of elections, or other interruption of good order. If there should be more than one polling place in any County, the sheriff of the County is empowered to make such assignments of his deputies, and other peace officers, to the other polling places, as may, in his judgment, best subserve the purposes of quiet and order; and he is further required to report these arrangements in advance to the Commander of the Military Post in which his County is situated.

Ninth. Violence, or threats of violence, or of discharge from employment, or other oppressive means to prevent any person from registering, or exercising his right of voting, is positively prohibited, and any such attempts will be reported by the Registrars or Judges of elections to the Post Commander, and will cause the arrest and trial of the offenders by military authority.

Tenth. All bar rooms, saloons, and other places for the sale of liquors by retail, will be closed from 6 o'clock of the evening of the 18th of November, until 6 o'clock of the morning of the 21st of November, 1867, and during this time the sale of all intoxicating liquors at or near any polling place is prohibited. The police officers of cities and towns, and the Sheriffs and other peace officers of Counties, will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of this prohibition, and will promptly arrest and hold for trial all persons who may transgress it.

Eleventh. Military interference with elections "unless it shall be necessary to repel the armed enemies of the United States, or to keep the peace at the polls," is prohibited by the Act of Congress approved February 25th, 1865, and no soldiers will be allowed to appear at any polling place, unless as citizens of the State they are qualified and are registered as voters, and then only for the purpose of voting; but the Commanders of Posts will keep their troops well in hand on the days of election, and will be prepared to act promptly if the civil authorities are unable to preserve the peace.

Twelfth. The returns required by law to be made to the Commander of the District of the results of this election, will be rendered by the Boards of Registration of the several registration precincts through the Commanders of the Military Posts in which their precincts are situated, and in accordance with the detailed instructions hereafter to be given.

Thirteenth. The number of delegates to the Convention is determined by law and is the number of members of the most numerous branch of the Legislature for the year eighteen hundred and sixty, and this number, one hundred and twenty, is apportioned to the representative Districts of the State in the ratio of registered voters as follows:

RAILROADS.

ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD
AND
NORTH CAROLINA
GRAND TRUNK RAILROAD,

From Charlotte and all Points on the N. Carolina and its Connecting Railroads, to the Seaboard at Newbern and Morehead City.

THE STATE OWNS THREE-FOURTHS OF the North Carolina Railroad and three-fourths of the ATLANTIC & N. C. RAILROAD. This is the

STATE LINE,

To its OWN SEAPORTS and on its OWN BOARDS. All other lines are in opposition.

A six per cent dividend on this line will save the people from taxation $295,000 per annum.

Under a resolution of the Stockholders of the N. C. Railroad, all Freights are to go via Goldsboro', unless otherwise specially directed by shippers.

When at Goldsboro', you are only sixty miles from the shipping point, instead of one hundred and sixty via Weldon, and eighty via Wilmington. Our Steamers are equal to any other line, both for Freight and Travel. Time as short as by any other, and as cheap.

THIS is the Line

To ENCOURAGE. You get dispatch, safety, but one handling, and less Railroad transportation than by any other line.

Three-fourths of the PROFITS made on this line go directly into the STATE TREASURY, and if encouraged, you will soon be relieved from heavy taxation at least two hundred and ninety-five thousand dollars.

The Railroads composing the N. C. GRAND TRUNK RAILWAY LINE have severally agreed to unite in a

GREAT THROUGH LINE

Route to all the Northern Markets, on equal terms and charges, via our own ports to and from the North.

Cars run through to all points without breaking bulk.

For information about shipping, apply to Messrs.
WHEDBEE & DICKINSON, Baltimore.

Notice to Shippers of Freight.

THE SEABOARD INLAND AIR LINE

Via Portsmouth, Va.,

IS THE ONLY DIRECT LINE BETWEEN Boston New York Philadelphia, Baltimore and the Carolinas.

It is express in point of speed and safety of Freights, being from

FORTY TO SEVENTY HOURS

in advance of all other lines, and at as low rates.

It offers daily communication with Baltimore, daily communication with Philadelphia.

Five Steamers each week to and from New York.

Two Steamers each week to and from Boston.

It is the only line having these advantages, and by which there is but one handling of freight.

Cars are loaded at the wharves in Portsmouth and are run through to destination.

Be careful to direct your Consignees to ship only

From Baltimore, by the Norfolk or Bay Line Steamers, foot of Union Dock.

From Philadelphia by the Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, or by Clyde's Line, 14 South Delaware Avenue.

From New York by the Old Dominion Steamship Line, Pier 37 North River.

From Boston, by the Norfolk Steamship Line, end of Central Wharf.

All losses, damages, or overcharges promptly adjusted on application to

JAS. McCARRICK,
Trade Agent, Portsmouth, Va.

Have your freight marked Via Portsmouth, Va., and in shipping to Philadelphia, marked Via Clyde's Line, or Via Annamessic.

NORTH CAROLINA
ALL STATE
RAILWAY LINES, (THAT USED TO BE!)

THE OLD RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD, THE SHORTEST, QUICKEST, SAFEST AND BEST LINE, NORTH AND SOUTH, TO BE LEFT OUT IN THE COLD, UNLESS SHIPPERS SPECIALLY SAY VIA. R. & G. R. R!

WE inaugurated and are the Great through Inland Air Line Route to all the Northern Markets, and have successfully worked the Line to the entire satisfaction of Shippers, North and South, for the last ten years, as the Ten Thousand Shippers in North and South Carolina will testify. We paid the State near Seven Hundred Thousand Dollars for her Interest in this Road—thereby saving the people from Taxation for all time to come $40,000 per year; and we unhesitatingly declare that we can and will give more dispatch to all points, North and South, than any other Line.

NOTICE!

The Great Inland Air Line Freight

ROUTE,

Via THE RALEIGH & GASTON RAIL ROAD,

The Thirtieth Annual Course of Instruction in this Institution will begin November 11th, and end in the following March. Preliminary lectures will be given daily in the Charity Hospital, commencing October 15th, at which time also the new and extensive rooms for Practical Anatomy will be opened. The facilities of the school, heretofore unsurpassed, have, by the liberality of the State Legislature, been greatly increased during the past season, so that now EVERY CHAIR HAS ATTACHED TO IT A PRACTICAL DEPARTMENT, in which students are taught to observe for themselves the facts set forth in the Lecture Room.

Fees for all the Lectures, $140; Matriculation, (paid but once,) $5; Practical Anatomy, $10.—Payment required in advance.

A Cheap Cotton Press.

FARMERS, BEFORE YOU BUY A PRESS OR build a Screw, enquire into the merits of the

GODWIN COTTON PRESS.

Hear what the following reliable gentlemen say:

I have seen Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press work at Mr P. E. Smith's plantation, and it does all that he says it does in his advertisement and more. I think it superior to any other mode of packing Cotton, and saves both time and labor.

W. R. SMITH.

I have used the above mentioned Press, and consider it the best I ever saw for packing Cotton.

THOS. J. VAUGHAN.

I have packed about 100 bales of Cotton with Mr. J. H. Godwin's Cotton Press, and take pleasure in recommending it to the farmers as a great labor-saving machine. It does not cost more than half as much as a Screw, and is worth twice as much.

It is so convenient, and takes fewer hands to do as much work as a Screw. I would pay the price of a Press rather than allow a man to put up a screw on my place for nothing.

D. EDMONDSON.

I have used the above mentioned Cotton Press, and it does better than a Screw. Takes less hands, does not waste Cotton, and is much cheaper

J. H. CURRY,
Sup't W. H. Smith's Plantation.

I have packed about 70 bales with Godwin's Cotton Press, and am certain it is the best, cheapest, most compact and durable Press in existence, costing only half, at first, and lasting twice as long as a screw.

PETER E. SMITH.

I have never seen the Cotton Press of Mr. Jno. H. Godwin at work, but have no doubt, from the certificates of the gentlemen above, that it performs all they say of it. I know them to be gentlemen of character and veracity, and that their statements are entitled to credit.

RICHARD H. SMITH.

The last name is one of our most honorable and respectable citizens, well known as a former member of the Legislature. I offer this PRESS as combining more advantages for packing than any now in use; it is adapted to large or small farms, and is so simple and cheap, that any good mechanic can build it. It is well adapted to

WATER-POWER.

It is 10 or 11 feet wide, 3 feet and 3 inches thick; top of frame above ground, 16 feet; highest point of Lever, 19 or 20 feet. The platform on which the bale is turned out, is 10 feet above ground.

Length of box, 10 feet in the clear.

Length of bale 5 feet, by 2 feet 4 inches. Weight 500 or 600 lbs. It is put up flat against the Lint Room, thereby preventing the scattering of the Cotton and need of baskets.

The Press is chiefly built of scantlings.

The Inventor has spared no pains in his experiments to make it practicable, convenient and cheap. I charge

$25 for a Single Right.

The total cost, including cover and everything, is about $150. Much of that, farmers are not in the habit of including as cost.

I think I can sell County rights at about $10 by the hundred.

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE

Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing

LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; "a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench."

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause. You are saved from the immense water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify.

I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.
